

boat on your waves of kindness (your friend is you),

by Aart Beunderman

Friend

I am at sea
you I did not see water that keeps me afloat boat on your waves of kindness from blindness I suffer salt-teary eyes
I've plunged into self-depths
I forget to ride with you on the crests

to our horizon
you're a landmark
lighthouse on the shore
sure with you I feel you're a beacon in my heart

Brother

you're a safe haven
through you I harbour
thoughts of dry land
sister
take my hand
lead me to rest
salt-weary eyes
I've plunged into self-depths
I forget to ride with you on the crests

you're a landmark
sure with you I feel
